Local Safeguarding Children Boards

Local Safeguarding Children Boards (LSCBs) were established by the Children Act 2004 which gives a statutory responsibility to each locality to have this mechanism in place.

LSCBs are responsible for local arrangements for protecting children and young people. They provide inter-agency guidelines for child protection. - See Guideline 8.

Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO)

Within the Local Safeguarding Children Board there will be a Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO)?

The role of the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO) works within Children's Services and should be alerted to all cases in which it is alleged that a person who works with children has:

- behaved in a way that has harmed, or may have harmed, a child.
- possibly committed a criminal offence against children, or related to a child.
- behaved towards a child or children in a way that indicates s/he is unsuitable to work with children.
